

City Council Memorandum

To: Mayor Fasbender & City Councilmembers
From: Emily King, Deputy City Clerk
Date: November 7, 2022
Item: Approve Hastings Social, LLC dba Hastings Tavern & Alley Cat Liquor Outdoor Tent Event with Liquor License Amendment

Council Action Requested:

Adopt the attached resolution for an outdoor tent event request with liquor license amendment for Hastings Social, LLC dba Hastings Tavern & Alley Cat Liquor.

Background Information:

Brandon Sigmundik of Hastings Social, LLC dba Hastings Tavern & Alley Cat Liquor, 111 3rd Street East, submitted an outdoor tent event application with liquor license amendment application for Sunday, November 13, 2022 from 11:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. The liquor license amendment allows liquor to be served within the confines of the fenced area of the rear parking lot of Alley Cat Liquor.

Staff reviewed the application and recommended approval of the event subject to the following conditions:

- Access and exit points from the alcohol service area must be staffed with security personnel at all times during service hours.
- Staff/security are to wear recognized shirts to distinguish them as employees and security.
- Security personnel are expected to immediately report to the Hastings Police Department any traffic safety issues, disorderly conduct, or criminal behavior that may affect the safety of the event organizers, attendees, or the surrounding community.
- Access in alley between Sibley Street and Vermillion Street are accessible at all times for emergency access.
- Alcoholic beverages may not be permitted outside of the designated/fenced area.
- Handicap parking stall and path to liquor store entrance accessible.
- Proof of insurance for the temporary sales must be received by City staff in advance of the events.
